Purpose*

☐ Product search via filters

☐ Variations as separate products

☒ Variations as one product

☐ Brand, author, etc.

☐ Additional information

For cases when a few similar products differ by a feature, but have the same name and similar appearance (for example, multiple "Size" variants of a T-shirt). These products will occupy a single position in the catalog. Customers will be able to select the desired feature value on the product page. To achieve this, set up variations for products with this feature.

Determines how you and your customers will be able to use this feature.

Feature style*Drop-down list

Determines the look of this feature on the product page.

Filter type*Checkbox

Determines the look of a filter by this feature on the product list. Filters make it easier for customers to find a product with the desired feature value. You'll be able to create a filter after you create a feature.

Group-None-

Feature code

A suitable code can help this feature appear with the product in search engines. Supported codes:
